Copyright Assignment Revised August 28, 2002

This agreement is made this _____ day of _____ between Gene Selven & Associates Inc. (GSAI), a California corporation doing business at 7291 Coronado Dr., Suite 8, San Jose, California, as Chip Scale Review (hereafter “CSR”), and _____ (hereafter “Assignor”).

Whereas the Assignor wishes to have the article entitled:

Written by (authors' names) _____
(hereafter “The Work,”) published in CSR and/or such other media as are owned, partially owned and/or controlled by CSR, the parties agree as follows:

The Assignor represents and warrants as follows: (Initial where indicated.)

1. Select either A or B (Most companies will select B.)

- A. The Assignor is the sole author or co-author of The Work and sole owner or co-owner of the copyright to the work. (Each author must complete this form.) The Assignor warrants that he/she did not complete this work as a “Work for Hire,” nor as an employee of a third party. Note: This answer will apply to you ONLY if you’re a consultant working on your own behalf and NOT a direct or contracted employee of a business entity. Initial _____
- B. The Assignor (usually the employer) is not the author of The Work, but is the sole owner or co-owner of the copyright, and this work was authored by one or more employees of the copyright owner or by an independent contractor as a Work for Hire. Note: Item B will apply to most articles submitted, in which case this form is to be completed and signed by the employer of the author(s) NOT by the authors. Initial _____

2. Select either A or B

- A. The Assignor has not previously transferred any part of the copyright in The Work to any other party, whether for publication in a book, magazine, conference, website or other form of media. Initial _____
- B. The Assignor has previously transferred all or part of the copyright in The Work to another party, specifically: Name of publication or conference _____, date of publication or conference _____
Initial _____
3. The Assignor, by his or her signature, hereby assigns, sells and transfers all rights in The Work to CSR together with all rights to secure renewals, reissues and extensions of such rights, in return for publication of The Work.
4. The Assignor agrees that CSR may accept or reject the work in whole or in part, and that if CSR accepts the work, CSR may edit or modify the work in any manner, for publication in any medium. Assignor understands that CSR's total responsibility shall be to notify the Assignor in a timely manner of The Work's acceptance or rejection. Upon notice of rejection, copyright reverts to the Assignor.
5. The Assignor represents that all material presented within The Work is wholly original, including all graphics, and that no individual or business entity holds ownership (the copyright) in any of the material submitted, with the exception of entities listed in Item 2. B.
6. This contract shall be governed by and under the laws of the State of California. Furthermore, this agreement supersedes any and all oral agreements. Any modification to this agreement must be made in writing and must be approved in writing by the Publisher or his representative.
